United Nations Office and international organizations at Geneva

13 March 1991

No. 249

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you, as President of the Trade and Development Board, that the Government of the Republic of Colombia proposes the town of Cartagena de Indias as the venue of the eighth session of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, on the understanding that it can be held after 1 February 1992 and that, as is customary, agreement can be reached on what its organization will entail.

The Government of Colombia is thus acting on Latin America's pledge to host UNCTAD VIII and expresses the region's interest in this organization, to whose ideals it is deeply attached.

Accept, Sir, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Permanent Representative of Colombia
